Headline:

Dry, warm and sunny today, but some east coast cloud.

Today:

Overnight low cloud mostly burning off in the morning to leave a dry, sunny and very warm day, locally hot in the west and Central Belt. Some haar may linger along the east coast where it will be cooler. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Tonight:

Dry with some warm sunshine in most places this evening. Low cloud and mist will spread inland overnight, perhaps with a little drizzle in the east. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Thursday:

Overnight low cloud will burn back to eastern coastal districts where it may linger. Otherwise another dry, sunny and very warm day. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:

Remaining dry with some very warm sunshine and early morning low cloud, this may linger along the east coast into the afternoons keeping it rather cool.
